

STATE FACTSHEET

California

2017

For five former mine sites on the National Priorities List (NPL) contaminated with heavy metals, ATSDR's partner, the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) is evaluating exposures, educating the public, and collaborating with local native tribes and Southeast Asian communities who depend on the natural resources of these areas.